

Faces of Faith: Daughters of Zelophehad "They Stood"

Graphic Image
by Lauren Wright Pittman

Reflection Activities

Visio Divina

Take a few moments to gaze upon the artwork. Sit still in quiet meditation as you observe the visual qualities of what you see: color, line, texture, movement, shape, form. Now take a deeper look. What parts of the image are your eyes most drawn to? What parts of the image did you overlook? Now engage your imagination. What story do you give to the figures?

Reflection Questions

- Look again at the daughters's words and actions in Numbers 27:1-11. What risks were they taking? Why do you think they took those risks?
- God directly speaks in this story, but how else and through whom might God have been moving in this story?
- In this story God makes a way for change. How might God be making a way for change in your life? In your community?

Writing Prompt

Consider an unjust law or exclusionary rule that exists today. Make a case for why this law or rule should be changed, citing who is affected by it, the consequences of it, a proposal for change, and how you might participate in that change.